

ROBIN'S NEST COUNSELORS

No Surprises Act

You have the right to receive a “Good Faith Estimate” explaining how much your medical care will cost.

- Under the law, health care providers need to give clients/ patients who don't have or elect to use their insurance an estimate of the bill for medical items and services.
- You have the right to receive a Good Faith Estimate for the total expected cost of any non-emergency items or services. This includes costs like medical tests, prescriptions, equipment, and hospital fees.
- Make sure your healthcare provider gives you a Good Faith Estimate in writing at least 1 business day before your medical service or item. You can also ask your healthcare provider, and any other provider you choose, for a Good Faith Estimate before you schedule an item or service.
- If you receive a bill that is at least $ 400 more than your Good Faith Estimate, you can dispute the bill. Make sure to save a copy or picture of your Good Faith Estimate. For questions or more information about your rights visit www.cms.gov/nosurprises.
